PALARAUM

Raum
Via Ca' Selvatica 4/d Bologna

On saturday 13 october at 8pm Xing and TRIPLA present at Raum PALARAUM, the only earthly and tangible trace of an interstellar, mental and unknowable journey that took place last Spring, between 18 and 23 April 2018. PALARAUM is the proof for posterity of that magical event, its genesis and its unexpected consequences. (Xing production).

After collaborating on the 'uninstallation' project Ù for the last edition of Live Arts Week, PALARAUM continues with the relationship of complicity that connects two art spaces dedicated to radical experimentation, pushing the limits of the device and the work of art ever further, with one foot in reality and one in the realm of the possible.

TRIPLA is an artist-run-space founded in Bolognain 2016 by Luca Bernardello, Paolo Bufalini and Filippo Cecconi. From February 2016, its windows, lit 24/7, have hosted personal and collective exhibitions of Italian and international artists.

Raum, Xing's headquarters in Bologna since 2003, is a space dedicated to the support of contemporary cultural production. Its challenge is primarily aimed at italian artists who meet and collaborate, often for the first time, solicited by unusual production occasions; while international artists are invited to present brilliant works from the panorama of contemporary creation, showing materials and experiences that facilitate the circulation of ideas.

Supported by di Regione Emilia-Romagna, Comune di Bologna, Edizioni Zero. On the occasion of 14th Giornata del Contemporaneo/AMACI and EnERgie Diffuse - Emilia-Romagna un patrimonio di culture e umanità.
